

Want To Take One or More Courses?

On average, it takes 3 - 4 hours to complete each course and take an on-line test. Do you want to take one or more of our training courses? As an introductory offer, these courses are provided without cost to you. If your answer is yes, you will need to register as a student. Follow the instructions below:

1) Send an email to our program coordinator, Robby Jernigan, requesting to register as a student. His email address is: robbyj@ipa.net (See our Privacy Policy below)

2) Please include in your email: your name, along with a short paragraph explaining your background, current ministry involvement, and why you want to take this training. Based on this information, you will be contacted by email. If your preliminary request to register is accepted, you will be asked to provide the following information. Again, as an introductory offer, there is NO COST to you.

3) When you register, you will be asked to provide the following information:

Your name (as you want it to appear on your course completion certificate)

Your mailing address

Your email address

Your phone number

Name of the church you attend (church name, city, state)

Your religious/spiritual background, training, and experience

Your ministry experience (pastor, associate pastor, church leader, Sunday School teacher, chaplain, etc.)

Your level of training and/or experience in emergency services (if any, none is required)

Highest educational level achieved. Did you graduate? (There is no specific requirement)

Your age and current employment

Your current ministry involvement

Are you currently an emergency services chaplain?

Are you interested in becoming a volunteer emergency services chaplain in your local community?

Why do we need this information? The Internet is a vast expanse in which to cast a net. We want to spend our time training those who are serious about helping emergency responders and citizens in crisis - - those who want to actively participate in advancing the Kingdom of God.

Privacy Policy - - Your information will be kept confidential and will not be shared with outsiders. Periodically, you may be sent information regarding further ministry training opportunities, opportunities for fellowship with others of like interest, and information regarding this ministry.
